THEA 1027: Understanding Movies Lab Course Addition Effective: Fall 2009		APPROVED	In April 14 th meeting, THEA 1026 was approved to have a co-requisite lab course of THEA 1025 which is the lab course for the existing Understanding Movies course. THEA 1026 was created as a Freshman Experience course for just freshmen and the intent was to “share” the lab with 1023 and 1026. When entering it into the Banner system, it was discovered that to assign a co-requisite to two courses would require students to register for BOTH courses (both LEC courses). THEA 1027 was created to be the co-requisite course to THEA 1026 to eliminate this confusion. With that intent, Brent Hanson asked to rescind the action taken on THEA 1025 in the April 14 th meeting, which was to add 1026 as the co-requisite course, and to change the course description to reflect that change.
THEA 1026: Understanding Movies: Freshman Experience Single Change Form Effective: Fall 2009		APPROVED	Change co-requisite from THEA 1025 to THEA 1027.
COMM 2500: Elements/Trends/Issues of Digital Technology Single Change Form		APPROVED	Delete prerequisite of COMM 1500.
