5. Is this course designed for a specific group? Yes Who? Male Intercollegiate Soccer Players

6. Catalog Description: Now in Print, or Proposed Below:

Course designed for male students who play intercollegiate soccer. Only those students selected to perform athletically may take this course. Includes instruction in skills and play in intercollegiate soccer games. This is an activity class designed to give the student-athletecompetitive playing time. Students will gain knowledge of the game as well as improve their individual skill level through competition. Instructor permission required.

7. Course justification (attach sheets if needed):

8. Are library resources adequate to support this change? No If not, how are those resources to be acquired?

9. Are technical and other resources available? No If not, how are those resources to be acquired?

Intercollegiate sports at DSC are funded at an impossibly low rate. This sport comes in funded entirely by community money. It is inadequate to support a full schedule, so games will be limited to conference competition. More money needs to be made available to support this squad, including money for additional trainers and coaches.

10. Relationship to the curriculum: Would the course fill a G.E. requirement? No If yes, which G.E. area? _____ If it does not fill a G.E. requirement, would the course offer elective credit? Yes

11. Transferability of the course: List comparable courses at other colleges and universities:
