- 5. Is this course designed for a specific group? No Who?

- 6. Catalog Description:  Now in Print, or  Proposed Below:

Required of English majors pursuing an emphasis in Literary Studies, and recommended for others interested in literature. Students will explore in depth the works of postcolonial writers. Particular works may vary according to instructor expertise. The course will emphasize the dynamic interplay among the aesthetics of the text(s), the authors' lives, and the socio-political context in which the works were produced. Students will be expected to read extensive amounts of work. Students will write several critical assignments and conduct a major research project. 3 lecture hours per week.

- 7. Course justification (attach sheets if needed):

We need to expand our upper-division course offerings to meet the needs of our majors. A Major Authors course that is devoted to major world authors is an important step toward aligning our curriculum with other institutional offerings, while still fulfilling the goals of our current Major Authors course description.

- 8. Are library resources adequate to support this change? Yes If not, how are those resources to be acquired?
- 9. Are technical and other resources available? Yes If not, how are those resources to be acquired?
