

Dixie State College of Utah
Associate Degree Nursing Program
Student Learning Outcomes Evaluation Plan

| Institutional and Program Purpose | Program Student Learning Outcomes | Assessment Method & Criteria for Success | Assessment Results | Use of Results |
|---|---|--|---------------------------|-----------------------|
| DSC mission: Commitment to community college role in providing career and technical education Nursing program mission: ADNs have a broader scope of practice than the practical nurse and provide direct care to clients with more complex needs. | Program competency: Technical skills Time management/organization Leadership/management 1. The ADN graduate will manage the patient-centered care of a group of patients across the lifespan and their families using basic leadership skills. | 2a. 100% of ADN students achieve a satisfactory rating on technical skills, leadership/management, and time management/organization components of the ADN Clinical Evaluation Tool. 2b. 65% or better of graduating ADN students will correctly answer the leadership in nursing questions on the ATI ADN Comprehensive Predictor Exam. 2c. The group score for graduating ADN students will be at or above 65% on the therapeutic nursing interventions sub-score on the ATI ADN Comprehensive Predictor Exam. | | |
| DSC mission: Commitment to community college role in providing career and technical education Nursing program mission: ADNs have a broader scope of practice than the practical nurse and provide direct | Program competency: Critical thinking Utilization of the nursing process 2. The ADN graduate will demonstrate the ability to make reasonable clinical judgments through the use of the nursing process and evidence-based practice. | 1a. 100% of students will achieve a satisfactory rating on all critical thinking and nursing process components of the ADN Clinical Evaluation Tool 1b. The group score for graduating ADN students will be at or above 65% on the | | |

| Institutional and Program Purpose | Program Student Learning Outcomes | Assessment Method & Criteria for Success | Assessment Results | Use of Results |
|---|--|--|---------------------------|-----------------------|
| care to clients with more complex needs. | | critical thinking sub-scores on the ATI RN Comprehensive Predictor Exam. 1c. 100% of RN students show improvement on the ATI Critical Thinking Exam compared to their score upon entrance into the program. | | |
| DSC mission: Commitment to community college role in providing career and technical education Nursing program mission: ADNs have a broader scope of practice than the practical nurse and provide direct care to clients with more complex needs. | Program competency: Leadership/management 3. The ADN graduate will demonstrate the ability to work as an effective member of the interdisciplinary team in a collaborative environment. | 4a. 100% of ADN students will achieve a satisfactory rating on the leadership/management component of the ADN Clinical Evaluation Tool. 4b. 65% or better of graduating ADN students will correctly answer the leadership in nursing questions on the ATI ADN Comprehensive Predictor Exam. | | |
| DSC mission: Commitment to community college role in providing career and technical education Nursing program mission: ADNs have a broader scope of practice than the practical nurse and provide direct care to clients with more complex needs. | Program competency: Therapeutic communication 4. The ADN graduate will utilize effective communication techniques with individuals, families, people in groups, and members of the health care team within the RN role. | 3a. 100% of ADN students will achieve a satisfactory rating on the therapeutic communication component of the ADN Clinical Evaluation Tool. 3b. The group score for graduating ADN students will be at or above 65% on the communication skills sub-score on the ATI ADN Comprehensive Predictor Exam. | | |
| DSC mission: | Program competency: | 6a. 100% of ADN students | | |

| Institutional and Program Purpose | Program Student Learning Outcomes | Assessment Method & Criteria for Success | Assessment Results | Use of Results |
|---|--|---|---------------------------|-----------------------|
| Commitment to community college role in providing career and technical education Nursing program mission: ADNs have a broader scope of practice than the practical nurse and provide direct care to clients with more complex needs. | Caring 5. The ADN graduate will demonstrate caring behaviors that incorporate patient and family advocacy; respect for persons and cultural diversity; and ethical principles. | will achieve a satisfactory rating on the caring component of the ADN Clinical Evaluation Tool. | | |
| DSC mission: Commitment to community college role in providing career and technical education Nursing program mission: ADNs have a broader scope of practice than the practical nurse and provide direct care to clients with more complex needs. | Program competency: Professional behavior 6. The ADN graduate will assume responsibility and accountability in the practice of registered nursing as defined by the Utah Nurse Practice Act and professional standards of registered nursing. | 5a. 100% of ADN students will achieve a satisfactory rating on the professional behavior component of the ADN Clinical Evaluation Tool. 5b. The group score for graduating ADN students will be at or above 65% on the therapeutic nursing interventions sub-score on the ATI ADN Comprehensive Predictor Exam. | | |